

YERUBAE

Yerubae making the trucks to run the plains Charmed to life thru animal bodies and hate
 The ritual begins
 A truck put together thru beads and skins
 The nicest way to gain clothing Ruining heads to take up the owning Run into camp of whippers when a fire's out your's knocked flat faster ooo ay y (unpleasant)

what a wonder scent that pervades the air One smell maple wheels, burned up hairs when you walk up to the thing and stand in the way you get stomped pretty quick and it's all kind of inevitable since your head turns into the Charlie Stinkstark and that gets dried up too.
 The passed out easy read papers can convince any ignorant to give up poverty for a funner imagination BAY NOEL BAY NOEL
 something scarier than life Bowing the stomach of the world look at the flying hairs up scepter finger wheel Churning and yelling like a cranky wind mill

ONE PROUD WATER TOWER WEARING LIPSTICK

OUR CAMP BY THE TRAIL WHERE THE TRAIN COMES AND GOES GAVE A WATER TOWER PRESENTS UNTIL ITS
 WOOD WOULD GLOW
 COMPLIMENTS AND BEST SMELLS OF PERADING COOKED FOOD
 were offered to the tower so it might spill us firehole brew
 At first corradug creaking sometimes wind would blow it's weeping Birds lived inside not chirping the tower sedly resting from the tracks too far back for they remember to see or to load some water it's now fortunate for me
 The proud water tower now only takes a least on us we had a silver dollar brooch and that pin gained us trust copper tacks and rabbit legs make it's beauty radiant
 The legs bend to thank our camp she now kiss with lipstick

MAPLE TRUCK TIRES

im going to sport Rashed out by the above Umbillica scene sets up camp fires lay yourself a hind down in it's rut repair repair bring it back down in it's rut one clean blow and a touch come back butter blow of something nicer than honey our phoenix drooling on us like rain on the orchard Noel Truck ya argue my sanity if I explain it enough a light it will seem (tires slung over shoulder) claw you (aid out flat) on a road chase between tires, thing about empty tire tracks it will come back for more Roll Roll Maple truck tire here it comes rolling pinkings nails soul and will out with rumbuling floorlings Roll over that track roll over belly fulls (Yerubae) they let them be They Harken Noel Noel Trade Machine take back stuff to tire and leave it rest on a road
 No No No No No Splat Noel
